

Annex 7

Evaluation summary for B2B LOCO events

2nd Workshop “Transport and logistics SMEs: Cooperation and competition”
Croatia, Opatija, 28.04.2011

		1	2	3	4	5
		Poor	Sufficient	Average	Good	Excellent
1	How satisfied was the content of an event?			2	9	5
2	Was the information obtained useful and relevant for my job ?	1	1	5	5	4
3	How well did this conference live up to my expectations ?		1	3	6	6
4	Have I acquired knowledge about new solutions, technologies and best practices that might improve some processes commonly used in my company?		1	5	6	3
5	Do I assess it useful to raise awareness of Framework Programmes?			2	8	6
6	I will personally use information acquired at the conference	1		2	9	4
7
8	How well prepared were the presentations?		2		8	6
9	Duration of the event consistent			2	8	6
10	Organization of the event			1	6	9
11	What was your general evaluation of the event?			2	9	5

Comments

- 7 Which presentation attracted me the most?
- National system of traffic information and benefits for SMEs – K. Hrudkay, Slovak Republic (1 vote)
 - Using RFID for paper reel tracking – Y. T. Herer, Israel (4 votes)
 - PBN Hungary, ILW Poland (1 vote)
 - Transport in Croatia with particular attention to SMEs coordination, F. Mihoci, Croatia (1 vote)
 - Lithuanian intermodal transport technology platform as an innovative instrument for cluster cooperation, A. Šakalys, Lithuania (3 votes)
 - System for rivers information services, M. Tušek, Croatia (2 votes)
 - Challenges to the transport and logistics SMEs during the EU accession, S. Stoyanov, Bulgaria (2 votes)
- 12 What would be of your interest within similar events in the future?
- projects for environmental safety
 - cooperation with SMEs; their participation in FP7
 - perfect organisation but very long trip to get to Opatija. It seems that better to organize such meetings in Capital cities
 - perfect organisation but very long trip to get to Opatija.
 - sectorial logistics problems and solutions
 - about practical solutions and ways to attract SMEs to the EU research policy
 - new project possibilities in EU